Each year, the obligor may claim these exemptions only if the obligor has paid in full all child support and arrears ordered for the year by December 31 of that year.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

If this is a modification of child support, all other prior orders of this Court not modified remain in full force and effect.

Pursuant to Arizona Revised Statutes § 25-503(I), the right to get a judgment for unpaid child support ends three years after all the children included in the Child Support Order have emancipated. To collect the unpaid support, the person owed child support must file a court action to obtain a written judgment for the unpaid amount before the end of the three-year period. (Limited exceptions exist and are found in A.R.S. § 25-320(B).)

Although the obligation to pay support may continue, a child is emancipated: on the date of the child's marriage, on the child's 18th birthday, when the child is adopted, when the child dies.
